

HIV and HCV Primary Prevention Indicators

Indicator 5: Percent change in health and social service providers' perceived ability to respond to HIV and HCV issues before and after participation in education session
Description	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Percent change in health and social service providers' perceived ability to respond to clients' HIV and HCV issues before and after their participation in CBO-led education sessions.
Significance	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Ongoing training for health and social service providers improves understanding and practice of evidence-based HIV prevention services (CDC, 2016).
Scale	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Scale: 1 (low ability), 2, 3, 4, 5 (high ability) Items: (i) Ability to respond to clients' issues related to HIV/AIDS; (ii) Ability to respond to clients' issues related to Hepatitis C.
Measurement	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Participants should complete the scale both before and after participation in education session. Compare participants' scores before and after participation and calculate percent change.
Data source	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Education session participants
Possible disaggregation	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Target population for education session
Limitations	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Survey participation dropout following education session

References

1. Centre for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC). (2016). Effective interventions: HIV prevention that works. Retrieved from: <https://effectiveinterventions.cdc.gov>

Click here to download a comprehensive list of indicators in the Indicators Technical Report.

